

Garden Checklist

1. At the top of the list comes post-Christmas care for Christmas trees and gift plants. Move living Christmas trees out to the deck or terrace. You can keep them in their containers for indoor use again next year. Be sure to keep Christmas plants watered. Azaleas can stand plunging into a sinkful of water occasionally—pot and all—cyclamen should be planted in the ground or set the pot and all into the ground, as soon as its decorative value is no longer needed indoors.

2. This is the time to get bare-root plants. Roses, fruit trees, flowering trees, deciduous shrubs and shade trees are all available bare-root now.

3. Check the camellias and azaleas in bloom now at your nursery to see if they're the ones you've been looking for.

4. Clean up your garden for the new year. Get rid of any fallen elaves and spent blooms and weeds that are still cluttering the ground; then get to work pruning summer and fall blooming deciduous shrubs, but not the early spring bloomers.

5. After you finish pruning, it's a good idea to go over the entire garden with clean-up spray to control hibernating winter pests. Ask a member of the California Association of Nurserymen to recommend the exact spray for this job.

Quarterly Disability Payment Due February

Self-employed individuals and employers who have elected self-coverage under the disability insurance program which began Oct. 1, 1963 must file reports for the calendar quarter no later than Feb. 1. Reporting forms for the quarter which ends tomorrow should be in the mail on or about Jan. 12, according to W. P. Nebergall, auditor in charge of the Long Beach Audit District Office, Department of Employment.

The voluntary self-coverage disability insurance program is entirely separate from the compulsory coverage for unemployment and disability insurance which applies to employees working in employment subject to the Unemployment Insurance Code.

THE DISABILITY insurance self-coverage report form, DE 3 DI, is a pre-punched tabulating card imprinted with name, address and Social Security account number of the covered individual, and the amount due as computed by the department.

If for any reason, such as a recent change of address, the report form DE 3 DI is not received by Jan. 15, the individual should mail his contribution directly to the central office of the Department.
